“Off the Wall” Band tours bases in Germany

IMA-Europe MWR Marketing

HEIDELBERG, GE - The band “Off the Wall” will be performing at U.S. Army Garrisons in Germany May 11 – 17, 2006.

The band is being brought to Army garrisons in Europe by the Installation Management Agency-Europe MWR Entertainment Branch and U.S. Army Europe G1. The group’s first performance will be in Kaiserslautern May 11, followed by shows in Wiesbaden, Ansbach, Grafenwoehr, Bamberg and Hanau.

The concerts are free and open to U.S. ID cardholders. Show time and location details will be available from local MWR entertainment offices and on the IMA-EURO MWR website at www.mwr-europe.com.

The band performed 25 shows for U.S. troops in Bosnia, Afghanistan and Iraq in 2005. This year, the band will bring their Top 40 show and dance music to Army garrisons in Europe. The five-member band, featuring both male and female lead vocalists, puts on an arena-style show. The shows present a musical spectrum, including country, rap and everything in between.

"Off the Wall" was formed in 1999 as a Top 40/dance band and has performed in hotel clubs throughout the world.

Planned Performances:

May 11 - Kaiserslautern, Germany, (performance with Lil Mo)

May 12 - Wiesbaden, Germany
